New Riding Mark Set By Richards

Britain's Champion Jockey Boots Home 4,000th Winner

LONDON, May 4.—(Reuters)—Britain's champion jockey, Gordon Richards, rode his 4,000th winner today, an all-time record, on the eve of his 40th birthday.

He reached the mark aboard Abernant, a 3-10 favorite in a five furlong sprint at Sandown Park, near London.

Richards, the biggest money-maker in British racing history, was born at Oakenites, Shropshire, May 5, 1920, and rode his first winner in 1939. He brought home his first winner in 1950, and won the title of champion jockey in 1958.

Since then he has been Britain's top jockey 22 times and earned an estimated $1,300,000 for race horse owners.

His nearest rival in winners is Yorkshire-born Johnny Longden, champion jockey in the United States, London, raised at Taber, Alberta, has been riding in the United States for 24 years, he rode 2,451 winners at the end of last March. He spent most of April in Australia where he rode only one winner.

In his 30 years on the turf, Richards has collected at least $200,000 in prize for himself. He has won on 45 tracks, but never one abroad. Riders three winners in succession 21 times, four winners 12 times, five 12 times, six, seven, eight, nine and 10 in 1952 had 17 wins in succession at Cheltenham Park.

HEAVY EARNINGS
Richards, now earning at least $150,000 a year in relation to his prize money earnings, may be good for another 10 years in the saddle. If he is, he may pass the 5,000 winners mark, and will have 10 more tries at Britain's greatest race—the Derby—which he never won.

Chrysler Strike Ends After 99 Costly Days

By Glenn Egan

DETROIT, May 4.—(AP)—The 99-day Chrysler strike, second longest and costliest in the history of the automotive industry, was settled today.

The strike cost $1,427,900,890 in wages and sales—barely short of the record $1,457,000,000 General Motors strike of 1945-46 that lasted 113 days.

Chrysler and the United Automobile Workers (CIO) announced agreement on new contracts this morning.

The 80,000 strikers in 25 Chrysler plants across the United States will return to work by Monday.

MAJOR STRIKES IN AMERICAN AUTO INDUSTRY
Here are major strikes in the United States automobile industry.

1945-46—General Motors Corp.—113 days—175,000 strikers.
1946—Chrysler Corp.—47 days—75,000 strikers.
1948—Ford Motor Corp.—25 days—106,000 strikers.
1950—Chrysler Corp.—90 days—80,000 strikers.

The union claims it received the "10-cent-an-hour package" in pensions and hospital and medical benefits for which it called a strike.

Settlement carried a $100 monthly bonus, including federal social security benefits, for workers at 60 with 25 years' service. Hospital and medical benefits also were increased.

Workers Lose $1,000 Average

DETROIT, May 4.—(AP)—Each worker lost an average of $1,000 in pay during the Chrysler strike, United Automobile Workers (CIO) source said today.

In return, he gained benefits totaling in about 30 cents an hour.

If the average union member works 40-hour week for 50 weeks a year, he would thus gain about $200 a year.

Woman To Face Trial For Murder

Mrs. Marie Smith Is Committed For Murder of Chinese

A pretty, 20-year-old Edmonton housewife yesterday was committed to stand trial in Supreme Court for the April 19 butcherknife slaying of Chinese grocer Wei Hon "Jimmy" Poon.

Mrs. Marie Smith, 1104-54 street, wife of an Edmonton Transit System employee, stood in Edmonton police court today with her lawyer Guy Patterson, said she had no statement to make prior to her commitment.

Defence called two long, hectic days of testimony as crown prosecutor Guy Beaudry called witness after witness to reconstruct the night when the Chinese grocer lost his life in his 96 street Byle grocery store.

Dressed in a dark-wrinkled brown suit, Mrs. Smith, through her lawyer Guy Patterson, said she had no statement to make prior to her commitment.

Defence called no witnesses at the preliminary hearing.

CALLS 24 WITNESSES

The frail-looking young wife got shaky to her feet, with tears staining her pretty face, to hear the court commit her to higher court which is scheduled to sit here starting June 5.

Yesterday's hearing brought to a close a drama-packed two-day trial during which the crown called 24 witnesses and read three statements attributed by police to the accused.

The accused woman's husband maintained throughout the hearing the first he began when his wife was killed in custody.

Yesterday he remained almost expressionless until the last moment when his face became tense. He was shifting an unlighted cigarette from one corner of his mouth.

Fenenboch Is Sure Of Release From Eskimos

CALGARY, May 4.—(CP)—Chuck Fenenboch, former United States professional footballer who played with Edmonton Eskimos last year, said last night "I know I've got my release from the Eskimos."

Coach Les Lear of the Calgary Stampeders announced earlier that Fenenboch would play in the Calgary backfield providing conditions gave him his release.

The speedy 189-pounder said he'd always played halfback until he came to the Eskimos. He played fullback, end, quarterback and . . . in fact one time they had him as a tailback.

"Last year was a wasted year," said the 29-year-old Californian. "I did myself no good."

Six Horses Entered For Kentucky Derby

By OSCAR FRALY

LOUISVILLE, May 4.—(UP)—Six horses headed by the eleven-year-old colt, Mr. Prospector, entered today for Saturday's 126th running of the Kentucky Derby. Seven to 30 more entries are expected before the deadline at 12 a.m. EDT tomorrow.

Dropped into the box by surprise this morning was the eleven-year-old colt, Mr. Prospector, winner of the Derby trial, Tom Gray's Oil Col. He had lost his head in the trial and didn't show his enough horse to win it.

The racing secretary announced after Stranahan's entry that no more entries would be accepted until noon Saturday.

Ben Jones, who has saddled a record five winners in the classic, meanwhile intimated that Calumet Farm's Thoroughbred would not run Saturday.

"I don't know for certain yet, but I don't think I'll run him unless he should need some horses to fill up the field," Jones said.

He didn't show me anything in the trial and I don't think he's enough horse to win it."

Traffic In Edmonton In City Police Scope

City police are responsible for handling traffic cases on Edmonton streets.

This opinion came today from a spokesman for the city's legal department, in response to a Bulletin query about responsibility for investigating last night's Jasper avenue mix-up involving an RCMP car.

City Police Chief Reg Jennings said, "The RCMP have equal rights in the city and as soon as we heard that an RCMP car was involved, we turned it over to them to handle."

He said he was not aware that a city policeman was standing near the scene of the incident, ignoring what witnesses claimed.

The chief also said city police have no record of any accident last night in which an RCMP car was damaged.

MAYOR'S VIEW

Mayor Sid Parson said today that when the RCMP officials arrived later, our men had no alternative but to turn the matter over to them, because an RCMP man was apparently involved.

"In my opinion, although I don't know all the points of law involved, if this man is an RCMP man, he should be charged under the RCMP act," said the mayor.

STERNER PUNISHMENT

He suggested that any armed service man or RCMP member gets such more severe treatment from his own officers when an offence is committed, than would be the case if he appeared before a civil magistrate.

"I'm satisfied this man would get a lot heavier penalty than under a city magistrate. That belief goes back to my own military experience."

He said he was not aware that a city policeman was standing near the scene of the incident, ignoring what witnesses claimed.

The chief also said city police have no record of any accident last night in which an RCMP car was damaged.

Mountie Car Stalls Jasper Ave. Traffic

By Ivers Kelly

Bulletin Staff Writer

Are the RCMP above the law in Edmonton? A veteran truck driver raised the question last night after city police refused to take any action on a tram operator's plea for help as a stalled RCMP car held up traffic on Jasper avenue at 103 street.

The RCMP automobile had two left fenders bashed in. It was in charge of a man described by onlookers as "drunk."

He was in plain clothes. He claimed to be "a Mountie."

A battered beer case was seen in the car. While his car faced west and partly on the tracks for eastbound trains, the person in charge of the stalled auto turned on his blaring siren. He kept the red "flasher" operating atop the maroon car.

"Will someone please call the police," a crowd of nearly 80 was implored by Motorman J. Michaluk, 12114-106 street, after he had an unsatisfactory talk with the motorist he later said "sure was drunk."

'We Can't Touch That'

A truck driver who had stopped to join the crowd, hurried to the nearby Strand Coffee shop and telephoned the city police at 2711.

He said "there's a drunk in an RCMP car blocking traffic on Jasper in front of the Bay store."

"You'll have to get in touch with the RCMP, we can't touch that," the driver said he was told. "Phone 2788."

"I was mad," the driver later said. "Are the RCMP above the law in Edmonton?"

"The city police would have come quick enough if it had been me or some other truck driver or motorist out there drunk, in a banged-up car or truck, blocking traffic."

"This man was in charge of public property that was damaged, property bought by the public to protect the public."

"I was mad," the driver later said. "Are the RCMP above the law in Edmonton?"

Mail Order Stock Sales Near End

Various Factors Contribute To Failing Of Rich Harvest

By Tom McQuaid
Exclusive to the Bulletin

TORONTO, May 4.—The golden harvest of mail order stock dealers appeared yesterday to be nearing an end.

Devising "mucker" lists, a post office order stock dealer's average was defeating dealers aiming their mail business at eager investors looking for a pot of gold in Canada.

The penny-stock men, operating within Canadian securities laws but outside the reach of U.S. regulations, have had their best years broken by the crash of the market. The trend now was towards later stock.

The post office crackdown came as a surprise to many of the operators because of misleading stock promotion literature. Operating on a basis of flooding the mails to prospective customers, the last was always dwindling and average returns dropping, brokers reported.

SUBMISSION FIRST

To get into the mail order stock business, a dealer must first be licensed by the Ontario Securities Commission. A prospectus of the stock must be approved by the commission before it is mailed, and no further literature sent unless it is specifically asked for.

The door opens to a bombardment of mail with tempting tales of sudden wealth when prospect fill out the accompanying "request" card for information. If the prospect looks good, a long distance phone call will give him further glowing accounts of sudden wealth.

The Ontario Securities Commission admitted today some of the literature was "too good to be true," but said it had no jurisdiction over mail. As long as a dealer complied with their regulations they could not prosecute.

The Ontario Securities Commission said the SEC's definition of fraud was not the same as outlined in the Canadian Securities Code.

OBJECTION RAISED
The post office action was described by the Toronto Globe and Mail as the "most drastic" yet taken by the government against "high pressure" brokers.

The newspaper said the post office had exceeded its authority and overstepped both parliament and the courts.

The Telegram said: "A complaint by U.S. officials that Toronto brokers' literature does not comply with their regulations is not sufficient reason for the post office refusing the mails to Canadian citizens."

Fighting 10th Recalls Days Of First War

Three hundred "on sweat" of the famous Fighting 10th Battalion honored fallen comrades recently at the annual reunion in Calgary on the anniversary of the battle of St. Julien.

Together with their successors, the present Calgary Highlanders, they marched to Knox church, where annual service has been held for 30 years.

At the city hall a wreath was laid on the 10th Battalion plaque by Mrs. R. L. Boyce, widow of the battalion's first commanding officer, who was killed at St. Julien Woods in 1915.

Mrs. Boyce, the only woman attending the dinner, has not missed a reunion for 35 years.

Another present who has never missed at the Palmer hotel banquet was the association's oldest member, Sgt. Maj. Dick Gregory, 78, who travelled from New Westminster, B.C.

Outline of the achievements of the battalion, written by Maj. Gen. D. M. Ormond of Ottawa, original adjutant and later commanding officer, was read by Lt. Col. F. A. Stewart, 10th battalion vice-president of the honorary association.

The unit took part in more than 30 major engagements, suffering 2,825 killed out of a total number of 5,300, all of whom were decorated.

A total of 537 men of the unit were decorated.

At the annual meeting, a Mrs. Shall Ness was returned as president of the association.

Prospector Claims Rich Radium, Uranium Find

By Tom McQuaid
Exclusive to the Bulletin

TORONTO, May 4.—(UPI)—A veteran atomic ore prospector said today a volcanic eruption he had discovered in Southern Ontario may be the hub of vast radium and uranium deposits.

Charles Gordon Earle, 64, said nature had provided him with a "real radium and uranium mine, not a prospect." He said the find was 125 miles northeast of the proven deposits of Port Hope radium in Ontario's Haliburton county.

Earle said deposits in the area were merely spokes of the hub he had discovered a year ago in the rocky territory 80 miles northeast of Lindsay.

The white-haired prospector said 30 major engagements, suffering 2,825 killed out of a total number of 5,300, all of whom were decorated.

At the annual meeting, a Mrs. Shall Ness was returned as president of the association.

DASHBOARD YIELDS SNAKE; DRIVER FLEES

NORLE, Okla., May 4.—(AP)—What would you do if, while driving down a highway, a snake suddenly poked its head from under the dashboard?

That's what happened to 38-year-old Clarence D. Courley and he just loosened his grip on the steering wheel and let his car spin in a ditch.

Farmer Courley said the snake was about two feet long and green.

The British Paymaster General's Office was formed by the consolidation in 1885 of various separate pay departments then existing, some of which dated back at least to the restoration of 1660.

Tariff Talks Rated Highly

LONDON, May 4.—(UPI)—British officials foresee a new three-way tariff deal between Canada, the United States and Britain today as the outcome of an international trade conference in Turkey, England, the fall.

At the same time, a senior official in the Board of Trade, Britain's counterpart of Canada's trade and commerce department, said it was believed the Turkey talks would prove to be the most important tariff meeting in world economic history.

The official said Britain would be prepared to barter traditional Empire preferences which she now operates with Canada, for cuts in most-favored-nations tariffs of the United States and Canada combined. Such a move would clear a path for easier entry into North America of British goods, he said.

NO APOLOGIES

City Blameless In Show Row Says Parsons

Mayor Sid Parsons said yesterday he had no apologies to offer for the show row in his management for any undue noise or rowdy behavior at Tuesday night's show.

Arrangements for the public address system were entirely in the hands of her management, he said. No criticism should be directed at the Edmonton Exhibition Association, he suggested for the poor showing of the public address system.

"I've been around to a few places at such affairs and I wouldn't say the audience was noisy," he added. He said the Gardens was not exactly an "ideal place" for such concerts, but was the best available.

Soap Mouth-Wash Not For Cussing But Cancer

By Paul F. Ellis
Exclusive to the Bulletin

NEW YORK, May 4.—(UPI)—A cancer doctor told me once a week I should wash out my mouth with soap.

I intend to do it. It might help prevent cancer.

The "soap prescription" was made after a routine cancer detection examination in cooperation with the American Cancer Society. The doctor wanted more and more persons to take the examination to find cancer before too late.

The doctor, one of New York's top specialists, learned that I was a chain-smoker and that my throat was constantly irritated. Some forms of irritation have been known to cause cancer.

"You know," he said, "I am not going to tell you to stop smoking because I don't believe you will. However you've got to prepare that throat for that daily attack of nicotine."

He said it would be a good idea to use a good soap or a mild pure soap up to a good ether with any toothbrush, then wash vigorously my teeth, gums and entire mouth. This will remove most of the nicotine and other irritants from smoking that won't come off with ordinary tooth brushing.

It's no trick at all to have

Here's why the G-E POLISHER is so quick
The two-inch brushes on the G-E polisher are flat on the floor and the full weight of the machine—16 pounds—is on the brushes. An electric motor eliminates all the back-breaking labour by whirling the brushes over the floor at 1600 revolutions per minute. This rapid rotation of the brushes with 16 pounds weight on them makes floors gleam in a hurry.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Virginia Kellogg is a comely, greying, soft-spoken screen writer of 42 years. You'd never suspect that she has been a prison inmate or that she packs a rod.

But she has and she does. And the whole business has paid off well for her.

She is the only screen writer who "lives" her stories. "I will never take an assignment unless I can go right to the source of the story," she said. She does this for two reasons. To catch the lingo and the "feel" of her subjects, and people can't say, "That doesn't sound like real life."

She can show the doubters that the plot and dialogue are authentic.

The whole thing started back in 1934 when she wrote "Mary Stevens, M.D.," a story of a woman doctor. Virginia spent three weeks as a nurse observer at a Los Angeles hospital to gather material.

For "Caged," an expose of women's prisons, Virginia investigated three eastern prisons and was even held in one of them for three weeks.

The treasury agents also provided information for "Waltz Time," the tough Jimmy Cagney film. For this she conferred with several "Ropers," the operatives who work themselves into gangs in order to make the pitch.

Paris Police Working Is Theme At Empress

Breath-taking story of police work in Paris and filmed in the French capital, "The Man on the Eiffel Tower" features an all-star American cast.

Produced by Irving Allen and Franchot Tone, the picture presents Charles Laughton as a famous Parisian detective who is certain of a murderer's identity but has no evidence he can bring into court. So he inaugurates a war of nerves, skillfully planned to shake the criminal's sense of security.

This campaign plus the romantic troubles of a rich young American whose sister is the killer's victim, in the picture's presentation.

First Concert Film Shown

First motion picture of an actual concert ever produced by Hollywood is something new for Edmonton audiences.

A welcome change from the usual hatching of the lives of composers is provided by the Hollywood writers in this new production, which starts today at the Varscona Theatre.

In the spotlight is the famous violinist, Yehudi Menuhin, who brings to the screen such classic as Sonata No. 1 in D Major, Scherzo Tarentelle, and Paganini's 24th Caprice.

Others in the stellar cast are Eula Beal, contralto; Jakob Gimpel, pianist; and Anita Dorati, conducting the Hollywood Symphony Orchestra.

IN CONCERT FORM
The film is in concert form and presents the concert hall to the motion picture audience. The program is offered just as in any concert hall, except that the patrons hear three artists at regular intervals.

Chief 'Shot-In-The-Arm'

CALGARY—The Indians at the nearby Stampede Reserve took time out, the other day to make Toronto Mariboros' George Armstrong a chief of their tribe.

They named the 19-year-old winger, whose mother is a full-blooded Ojibwa, "Chief-Shot-In-The-Arm."

And if it's alright with the Stampede they can do something along the same lines for Calgary's Bunny Deme. We can even supply the new name: Chief 'Shot-In-The-Arm'.

Certainly, the aging (by hockey standards) Deme, with his hell-bent-for-leather performance against the Mariboros here last night, best personified the spirit of a fighting Stampeder squad that wouldn't, therefore couldn't, be stopped.

As the Cowboys threw a... "a" on the Marlies and then proceeded to break them in 5-4 fashion, Deme skated and battled as though somehow the man with the reaper had reversed his field 10 years or so.

His defensive play, on those occasions when Stamp numbers had been trimmed by penalties, was such as to earn him several ovations.

And it takes the average hockey fan quite a time to run a temperature just because a guy breaks up a rush or two.

Lewicki No Ball of Fire

As in the previous, the Mariboros again supplied most of the trouble-drama, most of the dirty manoeuvres. Win or lose, those colts of the Toronto Maple Leaf seemed to relish the front end, appear to like to carry the play to the enemy.

But they were guilty of several costly defensive lapses in this second game. All of which was doubly costly because, truth to tell, young Pat Boehmer in their nets hasn't shown himself any great and heady dowsman.

Stampede were a fighting club, after their lacklustre performance as the curtain went up. They were the same grimly determined gang that won the vital fifth game of the World's Canada league final against Flyers, right on Edmonton ice.

Danny Lewicki, who must be well into his fourth scrap book for the current season, is the country's most talked about hockey.

And the 18-year-old Port Arthur product was quick to say about the Stamp, at the conclusion of last night's action-soaked offering: "They're going to be awful tough to beat."

Lewicki, incidentally, hadn't been any ball-of-fire on this occasion.

West Square With East

The Mariboros weren't very happy about the hotfoot Stamp handed them. They quickly retreated to the privacy of their dressing room and refused to see anyone, the press included.

Just how this bush-league behaviour was going to help them win the third game, scheduled for Saturday, 12 hours away, wasn't easily discernible. Probably this is an old eastern Canada custom, more likely its peculiar to Hogtown-Toronto, that is.

Stampede, on the other hand, rolled out the welcome mat, even for the fourth estates. They obliged cameramen, answered the same old questions for the news-hawks.

Greet to be on a winner, even for a night, did we hear someone say?

The No. 1 Stamp of the round-up, the aforementioned Napoleon (Bunny) Deme, was in high gear as he donned his glad rags and headed downstairs.

"Wonder if you'd pass a saliva test?" a still wondering scribe needed him.

Chief 'Shot-In-The-Arm' didn't answer. He just grinned.

But Stan Deme, standing close by, let go an appreciative snort.

Yep, those Cowboys were pretty happy now that the West was all square with the East.

THEORY MAY BE SCRATCHED

Kentucky Breeders Favor Your Host

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 4—(AP)—There is a growing feeling among the horsemen at Churchill Downs that Hill Prince will have to take care of Your Host in Saturday's Kentucky Derby if the latter is to be denied the winner's share.

Middleground's failure to collar the King Ranch horse in the stretch of Tuesday's derby, cost the King Ranch horse considerable support. And Calumet Farmer's Theory showed to little avail there is even a possibility now on whether trainer Ben Jones will start him in the big race.

At the annual Kentucky Breeders dinner night most of the talk eventually to a discussion of Hill Prince's chances of staying close enough to Your Host to trip him in the latter stages of the derby. No other colt among the 17 possible entries got as much from the keen who know horses best.

Old Capital, the Oklahoma horse, is not being discussed with any great warmth, despite the fact that there is even a possibility now on whether trainer Ben Jones will start him in the big race.

Recreation Commission Track Club Organized

Track and field, one sport which has been heading for the graveyard lately, will be revived this season in a big way.

At a meeting last night it was decided that the newly formed Recreation Commission Track and Field Club, would go all out to boost the sport in Edmonton.

By going all out we mean starting the high school year in mid-latter years, neglected track and field as much as it might be put in shape and the green light was for members.

The remaining three courts will probably be ready early next week.

Members of the Glenora Tennis Club will be able to use today as three of their courts are ready for action.

President Bill Attie announced last night that the three back courts had been put in shape and the green light was for members.

EDGAR LAPRADE LADY BYNG WINNER

MONTREAL, May 4—(AP)—The Cinderella New York Rangers lost the Stanley cup playoffs, but the team's star forward, Edgar Laprade, won the Lady Byng trophy for sportsmanship.

The smooth playmaker has won the 1949-50 Lady Byng trophy hand down. Laprade was almost the unanimous choice of each of the 18 trophy selectors... polling 48 points out of a possible 51.

For the 30-year-old starry player, it was his first Lady Byng award, which is given annually to the NHL player combining sportsmanship with playing ability.

Besides the trophy, Laprade collected a $1,000 cheque from the National Hockey League.

Richards Rides 3,999th Winner
LONDON, May 4 (AP)—Jackie Lockman Richards yesterday rode the 3,999th winner of his career. No man has ever ridden as many.

The veteran of 39 years in the saddle will celebrate his 40th birthday Friday.

Richards has ridden 31 winners since the English-fair-riding season opened March 18. He stands a good chance of reaching 4,000 before the close of his riding in a 1-10 favorite in a three-hour field.

Arbitration Asked Of Nations On Persecution

OTTAWA, May 4.—(CP)—Canada, the United Kingdom, Australia and the United States have formally demanded that three Russian satellites appoint representatives to arbitration commissions for settlement of disputes over political and religious persecution.

The action was disclosed today by the department of external affairs Canada last Jan. 3 nomination of Mr. Justice J. L. Bales of the Nova Scotia Supreme court, 30 years old, was named as her representative on the commission.

The three Communist countries—Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria—are expected to reject the request to name representatives. They have denied western accusations that the Communists have destroyed religious and political freedom in eastern Europe.

If the satellites reject the western proposals, the year-old dispute

MALE PATIENT HATCHES EGG, CHICK BORN

FLENSBURG, Germany, May 4.—(Reuters)—A male hospital patient here is contentedly mothering in bed a day-old chick, outcome of three weeks of hard labor.

He first took two eggs to see if they would hatch out among the blankets. Unfortunately, one did not, but the other, when he hatched, was a healthy, chirping chick.

The other, after three weeks of tender care, emerged as a healthy, chirping chick.

UN Appointment

OTTAWA, May 4.—(CP)—Ralph Foster, who resigned as executive officer of the National Film Board of Canada last December, is expected to be appointed film officer of the United Nations at Lake Success, N.Y. Mr. Foster is expected to take up his duties within a few days.

Archbishop Leaves

ROME, May 4.—(Reuters)—Most Rev. Paul Emilio Leger, newly-ordained Roman Catholic Archbishop of Montreal, left yesterday by train for Cherbourg, on his way to Canada. The archbishop is expected to reach Montreal May 16.

Commons Debates Red Issue For Second Day

OTTAWA, May 4.—(CP)—Parliament's debate on Communism rolled through a second inconclusive day in the Commons yesterday with no indication of any move to banish the Russian credo from Canada.

Greenwood said the Conservatives were not suggesting psychological analysis of individuals. They merely asked a strengthening of the law, not a Communist witch-hunt.

Justice Minister Garson said a motion by George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, to outlaw Communism and "other similar activities" under the Criminal Code, was unnecessary.

It would drive the Communists underground, encourage conspiracy, arouse unjustified sympathy and shake faith in Democratic institutions.

COLDWELL AGREES
M. J. Coldwell, CP leader generally agreed with Mr. Garson. He was afraid such an amendment might seriously curb civil liberties and said Canada, as a free nation, should "not adopt any of the methods of the Iron Curtain countries."

SWEPEERS GET SOCIAL BOOST

BEXLEY, Kent, England, May 4.—(Reuters)—Road sweepers here have been given a boost up the social ladder.

They have been named "street oracles."

Israeli Minister

Denies Co-operation

TEL AVIV, May 4.—(Reuters)—Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett said last night that no regime west of the Jordan river can consider itself secure "without Israel's consent and co-operation."

Speaking in a parliamentary debate on Hashimite Jordan's assertion of Arab-held territories of Palestine west of the river, Sharett denied opposition claims that the Israeli government had consented to the Jordan move or recognized it.

61 Douks Enroute To Oakalla Jail

VANCOUVER, May 4.—(CP)—Chanting a dirge-like hymn and with battered baggage slung over their shoulders, 61 sons of freedom Doukhobors arrived here yesterday on their way to Oakalla prison in suburban Burnaby.

Twenty-three of the all-male contingent were convicted on nautical charges in recent trials at Nelson and will serve terms at that prison.

Warden John Millman said: "They will have to look after themselves. They won't do any other work than their own cooking."

Their quarters, built as a shop, will hold the group "for at least 30 days," he said.

They (those convicted) can file an appeal within that time. After that the federal government takes them over.

They began to get supper almost immediately on arriving at the quarters, but preparing the large number of vegetables newly gathered from the prison farm.

Corn on the Cob Weathers Winter

By Bea Thrifty

Mmmmm . . . fresh buttered green string beans are a treat. So are the crisp, green lettuce leaves, the radishes, field tomatoes . . . and the corn on the cob.

Yes, ma'am . . . there's corn on the cob to be had. But it looks a little unhappy to be selling out of season this way. Little of me suspects some corn on the cob has been hibernating in some cool storage plant for the winter months.

Corn is just a little dry, a little discolored, a little tough. Wasp-ers aren't green and new-looking. They're tired, dry and last year's crop. But we must be thankful for small mercies and welcome the corn on the cob any old way.

The fine printed linen is cool, crisp and adaptable as pure white. It's the perfect material for the housewife's wardrobe. It's the perfect material for the housewife's wardrobe. It's the perfect material for the housewife's wardrobe.

Truly, the linen feels as cool as a multi-colored piece of antique silk. It's the perfect material for the housewife's wardrobe. It's the perfect material for the housewife's wardrobe. It's the perfect material for the housewife's wardrobe.

A liquid-hued colored natural line in 36-inch width is my favorite. But for the girls who are always there are half a dozen different block-prints. Blue is obviously a favorite and is represented in slightly large print and small geometric or-

There's a certain 15 pounds I've dispensed with over a ton of pounds of eight months ago. I like like bragging about it. . . even if it's only the temporary behavior of a 15-month-old child.

WHY GROW OLD

There Are Many Exercises For Hip-Thigh Reduction

By Josephine Lowman

The question comes over and over again, in class and through the mail: "What exercise is good for reducing the hips and the thighs?"

Well, there are lots of exercises which are effective. Lie on the floor on your back with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor, side-by-side, shoulder height position. Bend your left knee and cross over touching the left knee to the floor at the outside of the right leg.

Leg sideways-upward, NOT forward. Lower leg. Continue raising and lowering. After a while turn your right side toward the wall and place your right hand on the wall. Raise your left leg sideways-upward and lower it.

It takes more time to remember the first than it does to do it. It takes more time to remember the first than it does to do it. It takes more time to remember the first than it does to do it.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Lengthy Courtship With No Mention of Marriage

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a woman 38 years of age, interested in a man of 40. We have lived in the same city all our lives and although he gives me to understand I am the only one, he has never mentioned marriage.

He has taken me to places of entertainment since we were young, but we are always accompanied by his mother or sisters.

Now there is a man in my office who likes me and wants to call on me. Would you let him come and leave the other man to his mother and sisters?

ANSWER: By all means accept the attentions of the other man. If that doesn't make your wife's sweetheart speak nothing will and it will give you at least the advantage of knowing where you stand and what you can depend upon.

NO HOLD ON MAN
To a woman there is nothing more aggravating than the people romance that began in her high school days and runs unceasingly on through the years without leading to the altar. They are never actually engaged.

The woman has no real hold upon the man, nothing definite to look forward to, yet he has absorbed her youth and kept her men away from her and narrowed her marriage chances down to him or nothing.

The man doesn't intend to do the part an industrialist. He doesn't realize he is being selfish. The value of his head is the value idea that someone he will marry but he feels there is no hurry about it. It is his selfishness that when he gets paid and ready, and in the meantime the situation is not satisfactory to him.

It doesn't even occur to the man that he is wasting her youth and the freshness thereof, and ending out her heart longing for the

With every single homemaker hard at the task of keeping an honest budget it's time we settled down to the basic principles of stretching food dollars.

And today I thought we'd run through a few facts about planning menus, comparing prices, and about food itself.

I just happen to have a few gems at my fingertips you gals might be interested to sift into your systems.

STRETCHING FOOD DOLLARS

Make shopping lists and shop smart as you stretch your food dollars. This is the key to getting the most out of your food dollars. Keep minimum values in mind when making your food purchases. Price by no means indicates food value.

Keep up with the current food situation. Listen to the radio and watch the newspaper for food information and market reports.

Buy foods which are most plentiful.

Buy fruits and vegetables in season when most readily priced.

Check over all foods on hand before buying additional supplies. Do not buy more food than you can store properly.

Make sure you are getting good value for your money. Buy by weight or quantity. Don't ask for "so many cents worth."

Remember that cheaper cuts of

PLANNING MENUS FOR FAMILY

Aim to serve satisfying well-balanced meals every day, using basic nutrition rules as a guide. Vary color, texture and temperature of foods in the meal. Color attracts the eye and adds interest.

For example, don't serve beef, tomato and radishes all at once. Texture contrasts between soft and crisp foods often means the difference between a medium and a superb meal.

Serve hot foods good and hot, cold foods good and cold.

Contrast in a meal by interspersing cold dishes with a hot one. Serve a salad with a meat stew or soup.

Plan menus so that meat or other food left from one meal may be attractively served at another.

And serve it in a different fashion. Remember that judicious seasoning brings out the natural flavor of a food... makes the simplest food a treat.

MENUS SUGGESTED

Here is a simple guide to planning well-balanced, interesting meals for the family... a whole month's menu can be evolved by merely combining the suggested suppers or luncheons with each of the ten basic dinners.

Breakfast, of course, is important and should not be overlooked, but since this meal is more or less standard, varying little from day to day, it requires less planning than the other two meals.

These meal patterns are designed to provide meals which contain at least a minimum of the essential foods.

DINNER MENUS

Tomato juice, spicy pot roast, potatoes, onion, turnip, cream.

Beef and kidney pie (leftover pot roast), baked potatoes, mashed potatoes, pumpkin custard.

HELPFUL COOKING HINTS

MILK: In heating milk, use very low heat, do not boil... use a double boiler, if possible, if a scum forms when adding milk, do not discard it since it contains valuable milk solids.

To prevent milk from sticking during heating, rise pan with cold water or lightly grease the bottom of the pan.

CHEESE: Cook cheese at low temperature. High temperature toughens proteins and therefore makes cheese less easily digested.

When making cheese sauce, add cheese at the last and cook only until melted.

Any uncooked mixture of cheese and milk to be cooked in the oven, should be covered, and is placed in a pan of hot water.

In a moderate oven. Scalloped or other cheese dishes made with cooked foods should be baked for only sufficient time to thoroughly heat the mixture.

FRUIT: Fruit should be cooked lightly, either simmered, steamed or baked in a small quantity of water. Less sugar will be required, the fruit will be more tender and firmer flavored if the sugar is added after the fruit is cooked. Dried fruits should be soaked thoroughly before cooking.

Wholesome Meals Fill Out Chinks In Youngsters' Growth

Breakfast: Baked apples, cream of wheat, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.

Mother-Toddler Luncheon: "Luncheon special" of liver and rice (see recipe), buttered sweetbreads, green beans, plums with tapioca, cookies.

Men's Hair Longer While Wives Storm

SOUTHEAST, Hampshire, England.—(CP)—Many British men are growing their hair longer than their wives, says President W. J. George of the National Hairdressers Federation.

"Men are wearing their hair longer and in more stylish modes," George told a hairdressers' convention may soon be employed in, "On the other hand, ladies, with the present trend in fashion of rarer cutting, urchin cuts, 'tulp' cuts and other short styles, are reversing the order of the day."

George said lack of interest by the younger male generation in barbering opens the possibility that women may soon be employed in men's barbershops.

"The latest of new hair has almost ceased," he said, "If this position continues for a few more years the employment of males in the men's salons will be almost a thing of the past."

The romance began when Miss James visited Britain last year on a tour that was part of her prize as Australia's "Girl of the Year."

A chapman "must be built around the way a woman does her hair. That's one of the reasons why this spring's bonnets remain for the most part perched on the back of the head."
